

ABSTRACT

A modeling process includes providing blocks, each of the blocks representing functional entities that operate on input signal values, output signal values from the blocks, grouping
5 the output signal values as an ordered set in a multiplexer as a first composite signal and outputting the first composite signal.

20264385.doc

04899-050001